REMARKS

Applicants are providing the Examiner with an update of inter party matters that relate to the present application. Two commonly owned patents (US 5,744,305 and US 5,800,992) have been involved in interference proceedings. Specifically, the interferences were Interference No. 104,359 between commonly owned US 5,744,305 and Brown et al., USSN 08/688,488, and Interference No. 104,358 between commonly owned US 5,800,992 and USSN 08/514,875. Both interferences were decided by the U.S. Patent Office in favor of the real party in interest, Affymetrix, Inc., the assignee of the present application. The losing party, Stanford, appealed to the US District Court for the Northern District of California where the case has been decided (Case # C99-21JF). In Interference No. 104,359, the District Court for the Northern District of California found that there was no interference, and the matter was remanded back to the U.S. Patent Office. The validity of US 5,744,305 was upheld by the court. Interference No. 104,358 was dismissed in view of the outcome of the litigation discussed below.

Further, US 5,744,305 and US 5,800,992 were the subject of litigation (Affymetrix, Inc. v. Hyseq, Inc., US District Court for the Northern District of California, San Francisco Division, Civil Action No. C98-03192 FMS, and Affymetrix v. Syten, Inc. and Incyte Pharmaceuticals, Inc., US District Court for the Northern District of California, San Francisco, Case No. C98-4508 FMS (MEJ)). US 5,800,992 was held to be invalid under 35 U.S.C. § 112, first and second paragraphs, for lack of written description and indefiniteness. The validity of US 5,744,305 was upheld by the court.

Interference No. 105,089 between commonly owned USSN 09/614,068 and US 5,922,534 and US 6,255,053, assigned to Agilent Technologies, Inc., was recently terminated. All claims of US 5,922,534 and US 6,255,053 were held to be unpatentable. The claims of USSN 09/614,068, which were copied from the two patents, were also held to be unpatentable.

The references cited on the Form PTO-1449 and enclosed herewith were submitted as exhibits in Interference No. 105,089. Although some or all of the references may not be relevant to the pending claims, they are being cited to the Examiner in an abundance of caution.

Respectfully submitted,

HAMILTON, BROOK, SMITH & REYNOLDS, P.C.
